JENNY LIND'S MUSIC.

To Music Publishers, Booksellers and Periodical Agents throughout the United States.

The Subscriber has made a direct arrangement for the publication of the Music to be sung by M'LLE JENNY LIND, during her tour through the United States, consisting of original SONGS of her own composition, CADENZAS, TRILLS, VARIATIONS, &c. &c. together with others by the most celebrated masters in Europe and America, now in course of preparation expressly for this visit. The proof sheets of all the above music will be inspected by M'lle Jenny Lind, who has kindly acceded to the request to do so, and certify her approval of each song in the series. The whole will be published in a handsome and uniform style, with appropriate title pages of elegant designs, hitherto unequalled. Neither expense or exertions will be spared to render them worthy the patronage of the public, and the fame of the celebrated Artiste. Your order for the number of copies of each song is solicited, at your earliest convenience, as the publication must be limited in the number of each song, the whole of which will require a great outlay, and the time allowed for their publication is very short, as they must be issued on her arrival in this country. Dealers sending orders for certain number of copies of each song, will have their names and address published in connection with the Subscriber, on the cover of the collection of music, which will consist of about forty new and original songs, all certified as to their correctness.
